The Herald's Washington special has the following: The complaint against the Treasury Department in regard to the New York Custom House exactions, seems and to be based entirely upon regulations made without the sanction of the officials here. The commission of one cent per pound on cotton, charged for Custom House fees, is not authorized by law. This charge having been made heretofore at the New York Custom House, in addition to legal internal Revenue impost of two cents per pound on cotton, will be entitled to recover the sum back on application duly authenticated.

A good deal of trouble it appears, also occurred between the New York merchants and Collector Draper by the arbitrary regulation which compels every article of merchandise from the South to be weighed, inspected and carted by Custom House officials. The embargo is regarded as unnecessarily oppressive, the whole system being without the authority of law, presenting the practical result of imposing a New York tariff on goods from other states. These regulations are loudly complained of from all quarters, and very curious suggestions are made as to the disposition made of the vast sums realized from these exactions.
